HARRY E. WOOD HIGH SCHOOL

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

VOLUME 2

OUR SCHOOL IS OUR WORLD

The world of education saw a new satellite appear on its horizon in 1953. It became known as Harry E. Wood High School, a school world of seventeen hundred students. In this world the school day offers, to each student, the opportunity to make friends and to gain an education fitted to his own needs. Individuals hurry to classes, to lunch, to clubs, to special events, living a full and satisfying life.

Thus the days have come and gone, leaving the memories you find caught in the pages of this book.

COMMUNITY P. 80

HEART OF OUR ORBIT

The library sends its rays into all corners of our school. Whatever the need, Ann McKenzie, Marilyn Sheppherd and Carol McCarty, student librarians, are always willing to help.

STOP AND SHOP

Pencils, pens, paper and paraphernalia of all kinds are the implements that keep our world moving. No one escapes a trip to the bookstore.

FRIENDLY ADVICE

To Mr. Chadd, Dean of Boys, come many students for advice and counciling.

UNFAILING INTEREST

Mrs. Eagle, Dean of Girls, consults Harriet Mathewson, Ruth Ann Stewart, and Shirley Hendricks about their present and future plans.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

We're from Wood and no one could be prouder." This is the motto with which students back the teams of Wood High School.

The team may be eleven husky football heroes or three talkative debaters, but the same spirit applies in all community and city-wide activities in which the school participates.

FOOD AND FUN

Mixing these ingredients, the lunch room hour passes all too quickly.

VISITORS ARE WELCOME

Into our world come visitors from other lands. Arriving here is Dr. Fust Baijmur from Turkey.

TRIUMPHFUL TALENT

Through the year the auditorium becomes the gateway to musical concerts, dramatic presentations, and the fabulous world of live entertainment. Students, teachers and community talent share the spotlight. Among the outstanding events of the year are the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, the Faculty Talent Show, the Showcase, Thespian Troupe Plays and Musical Programs.

These shows bring a welcome change to our daily lives. Shown on this page are the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra with Izler Solomon; the French quartet from one of the student talent shows; a scene from the play, Seventeen Is Terrific, and an unidentified group of teachers from the Faculty Talent Show.

J. Kidwell

EASY TO LOOK AT

Ruth Cummings, Senior, reigned as queen of the Hallowe'en party sponsored by the Madison Avenue Merchant's Association.

HOLD THAT SMILE

Pamela Lewis, chosen football queen by student vote was crowned by Vice-Principal Glenn Miller at the annual football auditorium.

PLANS GALORE!!

The Wood High School P.T.A. brings the home into the school. The co-operation between parents and teachers makes possible many and various activities for the student body.

PICKLE IN THE MIDDLE

The annual Dad's Club Fish Fry proved a huge success as the first project of the year.

"NOW HEAR THIS"

The daily announcements, by Mr. A. K. Jones, are brought into each homeroom every morning by the Public Address System.

FAVORITE RENDEZVOUS

The open door of the cottage is the sign of hospitality to social events for students, teachers and guests.

BUDDING AUTHORS

English, the axis of our world is required of all students in the school for six semesters supplemented by additional electives.

FOLLOW THAT LIGHT

The shadow scope is no mystery to ninth graders, who spend six weeks in the Reading Laboratory.

SATALLITE CHATTERINGS

School news is published bi-weekly in the Megaphone. The sponsor, Mrs. Shipley, and her staff Mary Armour, Anita Houghland, John Williams, Lena Martin, Sharon Baird, Jerry Shane with Rosalie Stanton, Editor, plan the next issue.

NEWS HOUNDS

Meteorites in the newspaper world are the many students who serve in the paper's publication.

THE EXPLORER II

ADVENTURES INTO THE UNKNOWN

Scientists on our world are represented by Joe Terrill, Harold Bratton, and Bill Phillips in Chemistry Lab.

THE MAGIC FORMULA

Mathematics points the way into the future for Richard Kinney and Bill Phillips.

OTHER WORLDS

Wood's Woodchucks explore other lands and other cultures in Social Studies. Dale Lewis, Ray Miller and Mr. Hill examine the globe for distant destinations.

TRENDS OF THE TIMES

During a class in Economics, Don Vibbert and Frances Murff present a chart of financial fluctuations to other members.

A VISION CAPTURED

Inspiration and initiative are never lacking in our art classes on the third floor. The opportunity to create is an incentive which urges the artists to greater effort.

STAR-SPANGLED RHYTHM

Many bright and shining lights appear in the Wood High choir. Various appearances are made by this select group during the school year. Honored with membership in this choir are:

UP IN THE AIR

Perfect coordination is required of Mary Ann Kerr, Carol Coulter, Elaina Barr, Linda Lindop, and Kay Chicola as they form an intricate pyramid.

MECHANICAL AGE

Under the direction of Mrs. Green, Sandra Smith and Norma Waldrip become proficient members of the class in Office Machines.

A TALKING MACHINE

Pamela Lewis listens to a voice dictating words spoken at an earlier convenience, thereby gaining experience in actual Secretarial Practices.

A PLANNED FUTURE

Pearl Dantz doesn't need a crystal ball to see her future, The Placement Bureau, under the guidance of Mr. Vornholt, directs students into work experience while still attending school.

EVERY MINUTE COUNTS

Time waits for no man! These girls have found it doesn't wait for women either, if they want to be successful in Typing.

BOTH HANDS ON THE WHEEL

Another needed skill of our times is safe driving. Mr. Fox demonstrates the right way to park.

SHAVINGS OF WOOD

Tom Richardson, under the direction of Mr. Murphy, demonstrates the correct use of the plane in Wood Shop.

HOT WIRES

Build your own radio in Electric Shop. Larry Hall assembles his set of tubes, wires, and coils.

$T^2 + \triangle$ = BLUEPRINT

Bill Phillips and Ray Norton are learning the fundamentals of Mechanical Drawing by figuring out construction problems.

MAN THAT MACHINE

Perfect timing is required of Joe Dudley to turn out precise products in Metal Shop.

SPIC AND SPAN

The cottage adds a touch of home to the school. Girls from Home Economics classes, Carolyn Botscheller, Karla Davis, Betty Board, and Florena Hutchinson, prepare the home for a social event.

PATTERNS OF FASHION

Up-to-date styles are created from a yard of material and sewing know-how. Carol Devney and Diane Condon add the finishing touches to their semester project.

A HELPING HAND

Mary Ann Kerr receives professional care from Carol Pedigo and Barbara TeVault in Home Nursing.

OUT OF THIS WORLD

Tasty Treats are skillfully prepared by Dorothy Prince and Betty Lang in the Home Economics Department.

LIGHTS OF LEARNING

A steady glow surrounds our satallite, Wood High School. This glow envelopes the many opportunities offered students in the occupational courses. Here, in a barbering class, theory and practice are joined in the enviable opportunity of combining book knowledge with actual experience. Students receive training in many trades of the business world and are able to step quickly into their own niche as they leave our school world.

BE SEATED

BEAUTY IS OUR BUSINESS

A new hair style is just like a new hat to a woman. In Beauty Culture girls from all over the city join Wood students in learning the secrets of good grooming.

TOOTH OR CONSEQUENCES

Preparation for a career as a dental assistant is another opportunity for students to train for the future. Mrs. Marjorie Carr, instructor, is shown pointing out the functions of the teeth.

IVY LEAGUE UPKEEP

Cleaning and Pressing gives the interested students useable knowledge and a chance for a well paying job after graduation. A modern cleaning plant is operated in the heart of the school.

TECHNICIANS OF TRANSPORTATION

The wheels on which our world moves are kept in perfect upkeep by the Body and Fender classes. The talents of these boys are in constant demand by many teachers and students.

"CAN SHE BAKE AN APPLE PIE?"

Cammercial Faad classes have a steady stream af patrans when lunch periads rall araund each day. These girls are learning haw ta bake fruit pies far fifteen hundred hungry schalars.

IT'S A MAN'S WORLD, TOO

Kenneth Dobbins is ane af the many bays wha is learning the restaurant business while still in schaal.

THE SOLE OF THE MATTER

"Putting the best foot forward" seems to be the motto of the Shoe Repair classes. Well kept shoes are essential as we walk on the roads of our world.

FACING FORWARD

People in our school world come in all shapes and sizes. Each contributes his share as a member of our society. A feeling of friendship prevails from the loftiest senior to the humblest seventh grader, reaching teachers, custodians and the two office staffs. Everyone is familiar with most of the faces met from day to day, and as our world moves on into space many of these faces will become the beloved ones, remembered long after we are launched into a new stratosphere.

THE CROWNING STARS

The far reaching influence of our school world takes different persons into the radio world, the world of the stage, the business world, and community service. Through participation in school and extra-curricular activities many students receive honors in national recognition societies. The Hi-Fi Club is shown at the right in their prime function--cheering on the teams of Wood High School.

VALLEY OF THE NILE

Wood High School's fourth annual SHOW-CASE opened with a scene at the court of Aahames, Pharaoh of Egypt. The nobles and ladies of the court danced and sang but failed to prevail against the love of the Princess for the prisoner, Diemetrius.

THE MALT SHOP

The SHOWCASE next told the story of a high school group meeting for malts and party plans. A new girl appeared in their midst, attracting the undivided attention of every boy present. The girls realized in time that only a change from jeans to dresses would save the day.

HOLIDAY MAGIC

In the final act Wood students traveled to cauntries far away. A reluctant husband decided a holiday abraad wasn't so bad after all when he met same girls dancing amang the tulips of Holland and lavely senaritas in Spain.

CURTAIN TIME

The lights are down, as Ronnie Mitchell prepares for a perfarmance. Withaut the help and knowledge of the stagecrew, many plays, programs, and auditoriums cauld not be held.

GUIDED MISSILES

Our athletes are the magnets which draw interest from outer space. Our teams and our students have learned the importance of teamwork, not only in play but also in work. During athletic games co-operation and good sportsmanship are learned by both players and fans. These are valuable lessons and will serve well throughout a lifetime.
